

April 9, 2008

For More Information Contact:
Steve Remington
Earth Day Steering Committee
(541) 517-6707
info@earthdayoregon.com

Earth Day Celebration Features Dynamic Musical Line-up

Rockabilly, bluegrass, funk and jazz are just some of the music genres that will make up this year's 10th annual Earth Day Celebration musical line-up.

Rain or shine, the event is scheduled for Saturday, April 19 from 11 a.m. – 5 p.m. at Eugene Water & Electric Board's River Edge Plaza.

The following is a list of Earth Day Celebration performers:

Main Stage Entertainment

11:20 Welcome by Mayor Kitty Piercy and EWEB President John Simpson
11:45-12:45 Bajwana Tea
1:00-2:00 Eleven Eyes
2:15-3:30 Bad Mitten Orchestra
3:45-5:00 The Hi Fi Ramblers

Acoustic Stage Entertainment

11:30-12:15 Sabine
12:30-1:15 Hanna Miller
1:30-2:15 Robert Meade
2:30-3:15 Free the Banjo Girl
3:30-4:15 Jesse Meade

Musical entertainment booked by Cindy Ingram Booking & Promotions.

The theme of this year's event is "The Power to Change," reflecting both the future of renewable energy resources and our desire as individuals and together as a community to make positive changes to the planet.

The Earth Day Celebration is free and open to the public. Visit www.earthdayoregon.com for a complete listing of event details.